Listening to Sounds Listen/ watch to the story of Jack and the Beanstalk' on Youtube. Can you recognise Jack, his Mum and their Cow? Can you hear the Giant go 'Fi, fi, fum?' ★	Look at all of the lovely plants growing in your garden. Can you be supported to touch or smell some of the plants and flowers? Smell some herbs that may be in your kitchen— which ones do you like best? ★	Explore playing a game with family or friends—maybe you could roll a ball to them, bounce on the trampoline or join in an action song—such as ring a ring of roses. ★	Have a go at some yoga moves at home on the floor. We love trying to follow cosmic kids yoga on Youtube. ★
Listen carefully to some sounds that you can hear in the garden? Birds, wind, rain? ★★ Which did you like best?	Go on a hunt for some matching items in your house . ★★ Can you explore pairs of socks, shoes, pegs, toys, spoons—anything that matches!!!	Enjoy spending quality time with a family member by exploring different textures you can find at home—it could be soft fabric, crinkly foil or a comforting blanket. ★★	Have a go at stretching different parts of you body. Can you stretch your arms out, your legs out, your whole body on the floor? ★★
Sound trail ★★ Can you use some items from the kitchen to create sounds—this could be shaking some rice in a bottle, banging a spoon on a pan lid or pouring water from a jug. ★	Can you find a favourite video on a tablet, phone or other device? Can you pause the video and make it play again? ★★	Use a mirror to look at and share reflections of different emotions with a family member including: happy, sad, tired, scared and excited. ★★	Dance along to your favourite song with your family and friends. ★★
