

- Are you a Young Person with SEND and considering education, training or employment?
- Are you in need of more information on how you will be supported as a Young Person with SEND?
- Are you a Professional supporting a Young Person with SEND to find out about the support they will receive with their Post 16 choice?

Yes, then this is an event for you.

DUDLEY SENDIASS will be hosting
Post-16 Transition into Adulthood Virtual Sessions

Through Microsoft Teams a wide range of training and education providers, services and agencies who work with Young People will come together to talk about how they can support and engage Young People with SEND.

Wednesday 27th January 2021 – Post 16 Educational Settings

10.00am - 11.00am - Staff from mainstream-colleges will be available to advise on how they can support you in the setting and meet your educational needs and/or disabilities, with or without an EHCP.

11.30am – 12.30pm - This session will have staff from specialist-Post-16 settings available to advise on how they will support you through your EHCP and what they have to offer.

Wednesday 3rd February 2021 – Employment and Post-16 Training Opportunities

10.00am - 11.00am - Local Post-16 training providers will tell you about the opportunities that are available within the area and how they will support you throughout your training, with or without an EHCP.

11.30am – 12.30pm - Agencies will come together to offer you support and guidance when considering how you can access support in employment and be job ready.

Wednesday 10th February 2021 – Making that transition into adulthood

10.00am - 11.00am – Community Inclusion - Agencies and services that will support you in gaining the skill set and confidence to get involved locally.

11.30am – 12.30pm – Independent Living - Agencies who may be able to support you to develop the skills needed to live independently.

1.00pm - 2.00pm - Health - Agencies within the Mental health and physical healthcare sector who can work with Young People with SEND to ensure your holistic needs are supported.

Parents, carers and professionals who support young people with SEND are welcome.
